ABOUT SANTA FE JIN:

“Santa Fe JIN” means two things. “JIN” is the Japanese word for “person” and “Santa Fe JIN” is anyone who lives in Santa Fe. “JIN” is also an acronym for “Japanese Intercultural Network”.

Santa Fe is the residence of many people from all over the world and is well known as a beautiful city of culture and art. Our community shows a high level of interest in Asian culture, and Santa Fe JIN is the first local Japanese cultural group to form in Santa Fe.

Santa Fe JIN has been bringing people together since 2004 and is a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization.

OUR MISSION:

The mission of Santa Fe JIN is to promote intercultural connection and understanding between the people of Northern New Mexico and Japan. Cultural diversity is appreciated and promoted through our social events, community education and arts projects, Japanese language instruction, and most of all through our annual Matsuri; our Japanese Cultural Festival held each spring.

MEMBER BENEFITS:

Membership in Santa Fe JIN offers many benefits: Conversational classes are conducted both casually and formally, free and at discounted rates. Invitations to all members' functions including annual New Year's Celebration and July picnic. Discounts on Japanese cooking classes and other events. Connection to a community of people interested in all things Japanese.

All membership dues are paid for one year beginning in January and ending in December. For any other membership information, please contact Santa Fe JIN through email or visit our website. Thank you.
